

The FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protection. I enjoy my time uninterrupted in the evening after all day at work. I had one company that called past 9 PM at night and I was getting up at 4 AM to go to work. I requested several times they not call and why but to no avail they continued to call. If I want these services - I will notify the company - they do not need to bother me.